Carpenter's Brothers Family Travel has a special desire to help missionaries with their travel needs and have assisted with missions travel to dozens of countries. Primarily we facilitate three types of missions travel:

- (1) Short-term church/ministry trips for both individuals and groups.
- (2) Extended missions assignments.
- (3) One-way trips for missionaries moving overseas.

Carpenter's Brothers understands that it is important to be good stewards of the resources God has given you for your missions trip. Therefore we do whatever we can to find reasonable fares for your trip. Extensive use is made of fares from reputable consolidators. Consolidators are companies that have contracts with airlines to sell certain classes of seats at a discount. They often provide excellent pricing for two travel needs of missionaries: extended stays and one-way fares.

Price is not the only consideration. . .

Although price is important, it is not the only factor to consider when choosing a travel consultant to assist in planning your missions trip. Rather than focusing on a quick impersonal sale, Carpenter's Brothers strives to foster long-term working relationships built on trust. We attempt to communicate clearly to understand your travel needs and then to diligently apply our knowledge of the travel industry to meeting those needs. We offer the following value-added services:

- (1) PRAYER. We endeavor to pray regularly for your trip while you are on the field.
- (2) Advance seat assignments according to your preference (when available)
- (3) Coordination of travel plans for clients traveling from different points to a common destination.
- (4) Maximization of frequent flier benefits. If you travel internationally on a specific airline on a regular basis it is important to build up frequent flier credits. We will assist you in enrolling in the appropriate program
- (5) Monitoring of ticketed reservations for schedule and flight number changes
- (6) Access to excellent travel insurance coverage. Travel insurance is strongly recommended when your plans include substantial nonrefundable payments.
- (8) Visa and passport advice.

We look forward to helping you with your next missions trip!

*"Let another praise you, and not your own mouth."
(Proverbs 27:2)*

"Rob Schulze of Carpenter's Brothers Family Travel has become much more than a travel agent - he's become a dear friend. He's always interested in my ministry and my family. Whenever I call on him for travel needs he is quick and thorough and I know he works very hard to find me the cheapest prices and the best routes. I know he prays for me when I travel on various mission trips and I've never found that with any other travel agent. I appreciate the fact that this is more than just a job for Rob; it's his ministry to the body of Christ."

Ron Moyer,
Youth With A Mission - Tyler, Texas

This past year, Rob Schulze of Carpenter's Brothers Family Travel has saved us thousands of dollars in the airfare portion of our $250,000 short-term missions budget. A group of 20 to El Salvador was able to put the $5000 Rob saved them towards additional ministry needs. Upon arrival in El Salvador, another group was told by customs agents that they would have to change their return date due to upcoming elections. Rob was able to secure a different return date for the team. Most appreciated was Rob's time in prayer with us over the phone after my son was in a life-threatening accident. We wouldn't shop anywhere else and I would advise your church or ministry to take advantage of this great service that Rob provides. Try it! You will be blessed that you did!

Because of the Cross, James Massie,
Short Term Mission Minister
Oak Hills Church, San Antonio, Texas

"Rob has become an important part of our missions outreach. Not only has he consistently found us the best price for any given trip, but his kind, diligent and knowledgeable service has kept me coming back for 9 years. He has never disappointed me and his information has been timely, accurate and saved us thousands of dollars and then some! I highly recommend Carpenter's Brothers Family Travel to help you with your travel needs."
